

Philanthropy Policy

Kilroy Realty Corporation (KRC) is committed to being a real estate leader in innovation and sustainability. Part of that commitment is investing in our communities and future leaders. KRC seeks to address issues and needs aligned with our goals and objectives through financial support of education and community enrichment programs. KRC provides financial assistance to accredited schools and 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations that work to produce programs and projects centered around the following:

- Education
- Environmental Conservation
- Social Sustainability
- Health and Wellness
- Community Art
- Resiliency
- Biodiversity

We do not provide funding to individuals or religious organizations. We prioritize support for organizations and projects that expand the adoption of sustainability concepts and practices in real estate development and management.
